Sentence before Collect

Holy, holy, holy is the lord of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.

Isaiah 6.3

The Collect (said by all)

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love,
that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

The First Reading: Isaiah 6. 1-8

Reader: St Alban's: Carolyn Doig St Mary's: Jan Foster

(Isaiah was called to his prophetic task by an overpowering vision of the magnificence and holiness of God, whose glory filled the temple and the world.)

In the year that King Uzziah died,
I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty;
and the hem of his robe filled the temple.
Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings:
with two they covered their faces,
and with two they covered their feet,
and with two they flew.
And one called to another and said:
'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.'
The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.
And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost,
for I am a man of unclean lips,
and I live among a people of unclean lips;

yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts! Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs.

The seraph touched my mouth with it and said:

'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out. Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying,

'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?'

And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

R. Thanks be to God

The Second Reading: Romans 5. 1-5

Reader: St Alban's: Chris Sturdee St Mary's: Sue Odell

(The love of God the Father, shown in Jesus Christ his Son, is brought to us by the Holy Spirit. So we can have peace and hope by our faith in the Holy Trinity.)

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand;

and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

And not only that,

but we also boast in our sufferings,

knowing that suffering produces endurance,

and endurance produces character,

and character produces hope,

and hope does not disappoint us,

because God's love has been poured into our hearts

through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

V. This is the word of the Lord

R. Thanks be to God

The Gospel Reading: John 16. 12-15

V. Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

R. Glory to you, O Lord

(In his final teaching to his disciples, Jesus tells the deep truth of God as a trinity in unity. Whatever belongs to Jesus also belongs to God the Father, and this is revealed to us by the Holy Spirit.)

'I still have many things to say to you,
but you cannot bear them now.

When the Spirit of truth comes,
he will guide you into all the truth;
for he will not speak on his own,
but will speak whatever he hears,
and he will declare to you the things that are to come.

He will glorify me,
because he will take what is mine and declare it to you.
All that the Father has is mine.

For this reason I said
that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

V. This is the gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion Sentence

Through Christ we have access in one Spirit to the Father.
Ephesians 2:18

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty and eternal God,
you have revealed yourself as father , Son and Holy Spirit,
and live and reign in the perfect unity of love:
hold us firm in this faith,
that we may know you in all your ways
and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory,
who are three Persons yet one God,
now and for ever. Amen.
