Hymns: 419, 259, 740, 408, 435, 403.

Sentence before Collect

Clothe yourselves with the new self, created according to the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

Ephesians 4.24

The Collect (said by all)

Almighty God,
send down upon your Church
the riches of your Spirit,
and kindle in all who minister the gospel
your countless gifts of grace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The First Reading: Isa. 66. 10-14

Reader: St Alban's: Carolyn Doig St Mary's: Christopher Peacock
(It is the end of this short reading that related to the Gospel. In the time of God's final act of salvation, says the writer, those who are his servants will know his power at work in them. So it was when Jesus sent out disciples with his power and authority.)

Rejoice with Jerusalem,
and be glad for her,
all you who love her;
rejoice with her in joy,
all you who mourn over her –
that you may nurse and be satisfied
from her consoling breast;
that you may drink deeply with delight
from her glorious bosom.

For thus says the LORD:
I will extend prosperity to her like a river,
and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream;
and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm,

The Second Reading: Galatians 6. [1-6] 7-16

Reader: St Alban's: Kathleen Vallins St Mary's: Eileen Peacock
(Paul brings to an end this letter, which we have read over several weeks. He continues to describe Christian life under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, then a postscript in his own handwriting sums up an earlier point of controversy.)

My friends,
if anyone is detected in a transgression,
you who have received the Spirit should restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness. Take care that you yourselves are not tempted.
Bear one another's burdens,
and in this way you will fulfil the law of Christ.

For if those who are nothing think they are something,
they deceive themselves. All must test their own work;
then that work, rather than their neighbour's work,
will become a cause for pride.

For all must carry their own loads.

Those who are taught the word
must share in all good things with their teacher.

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked,
for you reap whatever you sow.

If you sow to your own flesh,
you will reap corruption from the flesh;
but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith. See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised – only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule – peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

The Gospel Reading: Luke 10.1-11, 16-20

V. Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

(As we read through this Gospel we have already heard of a time when Jesus sent the Twelve on a mission. now, Luke tells us of a different and larger group, sent by Jesus to do his work in his name, wherever he would soon follow.)

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!"

And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.

Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid.

Do not move about from house to house.

Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you."

But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,

"Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you.

Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near."

Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.' The seventy returned with joy, saying,

'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!'

He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

V. This is the gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion Sentence

God governs the peoples; he gives food in abundance.

Job 36.31

Post Communion Prayer

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered

by your governance,

that your Church may joyfully serve you

in all godly quietness;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
