Sentence before Collect

In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus

Psalm 23. 2-3

The Collect (said by all)

Creator God,
you made us all in your image:
may we discern you in all that we see,
and serve you in all that we do;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The First Reading: Deut. 30.9-14

Reader: St Alban's: Rey Crimmen

(Moses set God's Law before the people not as a burden, but as a way to be followed with all their heart and soul. It was for them to choose this as a way of life)

The LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock,
and in the fruit of your soil.

For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you,
just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors,
when you obey the LORD your God

by observing his commandments and decrees
that are written in this book of the law,

because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart
and with all your soul.

Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today
is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away.
It is not in heaven, that you should say,

'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?'
Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say,
'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?'
No, the word is very near to you;
it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

Second Reading: Colossians 1. 1-14

Reader: St Alban's: Lorna Morton

(The Gospel was preached in Colossae by Epaphras, and we have no record of Paul going there. But he writes to assure them of his prayers, and to call them to a true doctrine of Christ alone as saviour:)
Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you.

Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God.

This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant.

He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it,

we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,

so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God.

May you be made strong
with all the strength that comes from his glorious power,
and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience,
while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son,
in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.
V. This is the word of the Lord
R. Thanks be to God

The Gospel Reading: Luke 10. 25-37

V. Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

R. Glory to you, O Lord

(A lawyer's with Jesus gives us the familiar parable of the good samaritan - an unexpected lesson in neighbourliness.)

A lawyer stood up to test Jesus.

'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?'

He said to him, 'What is written in the law?'

What do you read there?'

He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength,
and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.'
And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer;
do this, and you will live.'

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus,

'And who is my neighbour?'

Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho,
and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him,
and went away, leaving him half dead.

Now by chance a priest was going down that road;

and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him,
passed by on the other side.

But a Samaritan while travelling came near him;

and when he saw him, he was moved with pity.

He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend."

Which of these three, do you think,
was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?'

He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.'

Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

V. This is the gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you, O Christ

Post Communion Sentence

The Lord leads me beside still waters; he revives my soul;
and guides me along right pathways for his name's sake.

Psalms 23. 2-3

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage,
you have led us to the living water:
refresh and sustain us
as we go forward on our journey,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
